TO: All my friends in the Lorain Bowling Community

I am proud to share with you that last season the LBA continued our trend of growth...our membership continued to grow, tournament participation was up, The Inaugural Masters Tournament was added to our tournament line up and we welcomed Grafton Bowling Center to the LBA.

The LBA and You, our bowlers helped in supporting scholarships for our junior bowlers. Teaming with the LWBA we collectively provided over $3,500 to Veterans services thru our annual Lorain Bowls for Veterans fund drive in November. Special Olympians got the opportunity to bowl with the Pro's during the Annual PBA Central Region Baldo Campana-Ohio Lottery Open and Students from Camp Imagine were treated to an afternoon of bowling at Nautical Lanes.

This year you can expect bigger and better tournaments, larger prize funds, more prizes and even more surprises in store as we kick off-season #91 in the LBA. Our list of sponsors and supporters continues to grow, enabling the LBA to increase our payouts for our tournaments and provide better experiences at all our events. Be sure to mark your calendars now...the 700 Tournament our Signature event, will take place in November, we expect this Party with the Best Bowling Tournament around to top the 200 bowler mark, be assured a new supporting sponsor for the 700 will add a taste of Big City Flavor to the fun and excitement of the 700.

In closing I am proud to announce, the LBA has been named the host association for the 2015 Ohio State USBC Jamboree in October. Bowling leaders and managers from across the state will head to Ohio's North Coast to meet and work on measures in support our sport and our bowlers and to charter a course for the future of bowling. Lorain will certainly be the State Capital of Bowling the first weekend in October.

Wishing everyone a great season,

Rusty
