OFFICIAL AVERAGES
2018-2019 Season

August 2019

Welcome to the 2019-20 season, this marks the second year of the GLUSBC and we think you will be pleased with our upcoming tournament schedule and format changes as well as our plans for enhanced service to you our bowlers and the entire bowling community.

Last season you experienced great tournaments from our youth divisions to the Open Championships and Women's Championships with our highest prize payouts in LBA history to additional opportunities to compete and enjoy all our bowling centers. Together we continued to support worthy causes like Lorain Bowls for Vets, Special Olympics, Power for Pink and Youth Scholarship Programs. We are fortunate to have six great bowling centers to serve you and our sport. And we have worked diligently to focus on continual improvement after last seasons merger challenges were met.

In our continued efforts to streamline registrations and entries, adding to local awards options, optimizing and managing administrative overhead and expenses, our local association continues to grow and improve, to strengthen and enhance our efforts to be more efficient and fiscally responsible in providing better service to you and a better return on your support of Lorain Bowling.

Please find enclosed the averages for all GLUSBC members. You may also visit and search bowlers averages on www.lorainbowling.net and at www.bowl.com. Technology allows us to be efficient and share and provide more information at the touch of your keyboard or mobile devices. Awards, tournament information, honor scores, historical data, announcements, tournament entry forms and registration and statistics are all available by visiting lorainbowling.net. Find us and like us on Facebook by friending and liking LorainABowling for daily updates, announcements and news from around the LBA.

Best wishes for a great season;
