History

Lou began his bowling career with the 1944-45 season. In two years time, during the 1946-47 season, he carried a 189 average which was the 8th highest average in the LBA. By the 1952-53 season his 197 average ranked him 6th in the LBA. Lou became one of the premier bowlers in the 1950's and 1960's. He was recognized as the Bowler of the Year by the LBA on February 26, 1961, at the City Tournament held at Avon Lake Recreation Lanes. Adding to his merit, he was selected many times to represent Lorain when the top 5 Lorain bowlers challenged Elyria's top 5 bowlers
